STATISTICS OF MUNICIPAL FINANCES — 1916.

INTRODUCTION.

The Eleventh Annual Report on the Statistics of Municipal Finances herewith submitted gives certain statistical data, similar to presentations in former reports, as of the year 1916 (that is, covering the several municipal financial years ending, between November 30, 1916, and March 31, 1917). Owing to conditions growing out of the war, which have made abnormal demands upon the Bureau of Statistics, and to which it has been necessary in the existing exigency to give preference in the public interest, also to numerous changes in the personnel of the department and other circumstances beyond our control, the publication of this report has been delayed, so that the end of the calendar year 1918 is now approaching as these introductory pages are being prepared for the printer.

Under these circumstances it is fitting that the review of the administrative work of the Bureau in this field, such as has customarily been included in former reports, should on this occasion be brought up to the current date. This work is differentiated from that which relates to the making of returns of financial transactions by the cities and towns and their correction and tabulation upon a uniform basis, as published herein, and is of two kinds: (1) The auditing of municipal accounts and the installation of standard accounting systems, and (2) the partial regulation of municipal indebtedness by the issue of notes by towns and districts only upon certification by the Director of the Bureau.

1. THE AUDITING OF MUNICIPAL ACCOUNTS AND THE INSTALLATION OF ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS.

At the time of the issue of my last report as of November 15, 1917, the Bureau had made an audit of accounts and installed a standard accounting system upon petition of the city government in cities and by vote of town meetings in towns, under the provisions of Chapter 598, Acts of 1910, and amendments thereof, in 71 municipalities; in four other municipalities an audit only, unaccompanied by the installation of an accounting system, had been made; and in seven other places an accounting system had been installed, but without a thorough, preliminary audit; thus there was a total of 82 municipalities for which the Bureau of Statistics had performed a direct service, upon their own petition, intended to effect an improvement in their financial condition. Since then, the cities of Malden and Revere and the towns of Canton, Bridgewater, and West Bridgewater have petitioned the Bureau for audits and the installation of a system; the towns of Chilmark and Marshfield and the Duxbury Fire and Water District have petitioned for an audit only; and the towns of Boxford, Edgartown, Lexington, Otis, and Whitman have petitioned for the installation of a system only.

In addition to the above, acting under the authority of Chapter 192, Acts of 1917, the Bureau has made an audit of certain departments, upon the petition of the selectmen, in the towns of Barnstable, Braintree, Hingham, Hubbardston, Randolph, and Stoneham, its services being sought for this purpose where a change was being made in the personnel, or because some doubt as to the correctness of the accounts existed and immediate action was necessary.

Thus, up to December 15, 1918, there has been a total of 100 municipalities (23 cities and 77 towns) which, during the past eight years, have voluntarily, either through the local authorities or by direct vote in town meeting, petitioned the Bureau of Statistics for assistance in determining their true financial condition or in standardizing their accounting methods in accordance with sound financial principles, or for both. These 23 cities have an aggregate population of 1,170,975 by the State Census of 1915 and an aggregate assessed valuation in 1917 of $1,269,068,609, representing 63.1 per cent of the population of all the cities of the State outside of Boston, and 65 per cent of the assessed valuation of all the cities except Boston. The 77 towns represent an aggregate population of 347,709, or 31.8 per cent of the population of all the towns of the State and an assessed valuation of $337,836,307, or 30.2 per cent of the total assessed valuation of the towns. That is to say, 51.5 per cent of the population of the Commonwealth, representing 52.3 per cent of the assessed valuation (outside of Boston), has had the benefit of the services of this department through some form of an audit of their municipal accounts, and, in most cases, the benefit also of the installation of a standard modern accounting system.

The need of these municipalities for this assistance has varied widely. A certain portion of the petitions for audits or for the installation of new systems of accounts have come from towns whose affairs were already conducted with a measurable degree of efficiency and whose general financial condition was good, but these municipalities were animated by the desire to have their administrative methods made the subject of an impartial examination and their town officers wished to keep fully abreast of the times in handling their financial problems and interpreting the laws bearing upon them.

In most cases, however, the service of the Bureau has been asked because the absolute need of it was apparent, this condition being due to inability to meet satisfactorily the requirements not only of legislative enactments, but of the increasing demands of citizens and taxpayers who are the victims of accounting and financial methods hopelessly inadequate to serve efficiently the conditions of municipal life in the first quarter of the twentieth century. The constructive work of the Bureau in helping to remedy the situation in these communities, at their own request, is a record of achievement which I think I may be permitted to say is most gratifying; indeed, municipal officers and interested citizens are constantly testifying, by written communications and in personal conferences, to the substantial improvement in the administration of local affairs which has resulted from the counsel and services of the Bureau.

While all this is true, the satisfaction which may be found in the retrospect is not without alloy, marred as it is by the reflection that the waste, and worse than waste, which has been disclosed in the course of our investigations has run into sums impossible to tabulate accurately, though they have indisputably amounted to hundreds of thousands of dollars which might have been saved had the taxpayers but awakened sooner to the necessity of subjecting their financial transactions to the merely ordinary safeguards dictated by the simple demands of business prudence.

Any feeling, therefore, of pride, which we might be disposed to cherish, that the service rendered by the Bureau of Statistics in reforming municipal accounting procedure has been the result wholly of voluntary action by our cities and towns rather than of initiative taken by the Commonwealth, is dulled by the reflection that all too many of these communities failed to take advantage of the remedy at hand until they were face to face with disaster. Concrete evidence of this distressing fact has been furnished during recent months in the form of deficiencies and shortages in town accounts aggregating at least $140,000, the amount in one case alone being sufficient to have more than paid the cost of auditing the accounts and disclosing the true financial condition of every town of the Commonwealth. The time has arrived when legislative action which will meet this situation more effectively than is possible under existing statutes is, in my opinion, demanded in the interests of the taxpayers and all concerned in a sound administration of municipal affairs. I, therefore, respectfully urge that the Legislature give earnest consideration to this subject.

2. THE CERTIFICATION OF TOWN AND DISTRICT NOTES.

A definite means of regulating municipal indebtedness so as to insure its incurrence only in accordance with the provisions of law is afforded through the operation of the statutes of 1913 and 1915, which require the notes of towns and districts to be certified by the Director of the Bureau of Statistics; but the opportunity for such regulation is only partial, and does not extend to debt incurred through the issue of bonds by towns or to any form of security issued by cities. While the application of the certification provision to all municipal securities would therefore be a logical step making for uniformity in practice and would, it may be assumed, be productive of salutary results, I have felt that legislation with this object in view might properly be left to be determined by the growth of public sentiment; but I am of the opinion that the issue of all loans, both of towns and cities, should be a matter of current record in this office, so that there may be available at all times to investors and the public generally, complete and up-to-date information on the amount of indebtedness authorized and outstanding of every municipality in the Commonwealth, and I accordingly recommend legislation to this end.

In the meantime, it may be said that the results attained from the operation of the existing statutes on this subject have amply justified them, notwithstanding the limitation of their provisions to the approval only of notes issued by the towns and districts. The following table shows the aggregate number of such notes annually certified, and the amount of the loans represented by the same since the original act went into effect January 1, 1911:—

YEARS.	REVENUE AND OTHER TEMPORARY LOANS		GENERAL LOANS		TOTAL

1918,	1,665	16,434,205.75	664	711,160.23	2,329	17,145,365.98

The very noticeable falling off in the number and amount of loans issued for general purposes in 1917 and 1918 is due almost wholly to curtailment on account of the war. Early in the summer of 1918 the Federal Capital Issues Committee was given authority over the issue of municipal securities in the case of loans aggregating $100,000 or more. This Bureau co-operated with the Government agencies in every way possible in inducing cities and towns to postpone all projects which called for the borrowing of money; in fact, even before steps had been taken by the Federal authorities to limit borrowing by municipalities, we urged at all conferences held with town officials that the needs of the nation be called to the attention of the voters of the town when making appropriations for the year, and in most cases the suggestions met with a sympathetic response. The results are shown by our records, from which it appears that for the period between July 1 and December 30, 1918, there were only 214 notes issued for permanent improvement purposes, representing an aggregate of $236,100, as against 543 notes of the same character, aggregating $553,772.21, issued during the corresponding six months in 1917.

The Legislature in 1917 passed an act (Chapter 264) authorizing cities and towns "during the continuance of the existing state of war between the United States and any foreign country, to appropriate such sums of money as they may deem necessary to conserve health and to protect persons and property; to establish, maintain, and equip training fields; to purchase military equipment and supplies; and for the purpose of conserving the food supply, to do such things as they may deem necessary to assist in the raising and distribution of food products." Provision was made in the act for meeting the expenditures thus authorized either by taxation or the incurrence of debt by the issue of bonds or notes for a period not exceeding five years.¹

FINANCIAL STATUS OF THE MUNICIPALITIES.

Excess or Deficiency of Revenue.

On pages xxii to xxv are presented tables showing for the years 1912 to 1916, inclusive, a comparison of the excess or deficiency of revenue for the cities and the large towns of the Commonwealth. Adding to these figures the total for the small towns, not published in detail, we give below, for all municipalities, the aggregate current charges against revenue and the revenue for current charges, from which may be seen the fluctuations in these transactions for the five-year period:—

YEARS.	CURRENT CHARGES AGAINST REVENUE			REVENUE FOR CURRENT CHARGES
	Amount	Increase	Per Cent of Increase	Amount	Increase	Per Cent of Increase
1912,	$90,563,923	—	—	$93,990,710	—	—
1913,	96,179,000	$5,615,077	6.2	98,185,974	$4,195,264	4.5
1914,	100,083,599	3,904,599	4.1	101,393,772	3,207,798	3.3
1915,	104,558,163	4,474,564	4.5	109,205,729	7,811,957	7.7
1916,	108,916,570	4,358,407	4.2	116,455,697	7,249,968	6.6

From the above table it appears that the aggregate excess of revenue over the aggregate current charges was, for each of these years, as follows:—

¹ Between the date of the approval of the act, May 17, 1917, and the end of the calendar year there were issued 10 town notes, aggregating $11,700, as war emergency loans under this act, and during 1918 there were issued 6 notes, amounting to $5,450, making an aggregate addition to the outstanding indebtedness of our towns in the form of notes (i.e., not including bonds which do not pass through this office for certification) for war purposes of $17,150. The towns which took advantage of this legislation, the amount of the notes issued, and the period of the loan are as follows:—

Fairhaven,	$2,500, 1 year.
Ipswich,	$4,700, 5 years serially.
Sterling,	$1,200, 3 years serially.
Swampscott,	$2,000, 4 years serially.
Templeton,	$750, 1 year.
Warren,	$1,000, 1 year.
Winchester,	$5,000, 1 year.

This office has no record of bonds issued by towns, nor of either notes or bonds issued by cities for this purpose.

The aggregate outstanding municipal indebtedness of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth for the year 1910 (the first year for which complete returns were gathered and classified on a uniform basis), 1914, 1915, and 1916 is shown comparatively in the table on page xii. For 1916 the aggregate debt was $209,048,247, of which $196,301,223 was net funded or fixed debt, as against $194,788,267 for 1915, an increase of only eight-tenths of one per cent, whereas the increase in 1915 over 1914 was 2.7 per cent. This decrease in the yearly increase of net funded or fixed debt becomes more significant when considered in conjunction with the increase in assessed valuations, as shown in the table on page xiii. In 1915 and 1916 the increase in valuations over the preceding year was, respectively, 2.7 and 4.0 per cent; in 1915, the debt increase over the preceding year was, it is interesting to note, the same as the increase in valuations, namely, 2.7 per cent, but in 1916 it dropped, as stated, to less than one per cent, while the increase in valuations materially increased. Since 1910, it is gratifying to note, the ratio of net funded or fixed debt to assessed valuation has been steadily, if slowly, decreasing (i.e., from 4.31 to 3.96) for our municipalities as a whole. Let us hope that this will not turn out to be merely cause for temporary encouragement, but that the declining ratio will be maintained until our cities and towns shall not only have paid off the last vestige of a species of debt of which, while it can no longer be legally incurred, there is still a considerable amount outstanding, namely, debt incurred for current expenses, but also debt incurred for those kinds of permanent improvements for which there is such a steady demand for increasing expenditure that they have become practically annually recurrent and hence partake, in fact, of the nature of a current expense. When we have reached that happy stage, or approximated a near approach to it, and have established a stable ratio between debt and valuation, we may be able to develop a fairly definite law for determining, in accordance with scientific principles, the proper limit to be placed upon the borrowing power.

MUNICIPAL FINANCE LEGISLATION OF 1918.

Pursuant to recommendations made by me in my last report, the Legislature of 1918 passed three acts intended to remedy certain inequities which had developed in the operation of existing statutes relative to determining the basis for temporary loans and the inclusion in the tax levy of sufficient provision for meeting overlays. The text of these acts is as follows:—

CHAPTER 25, GENERAL ACTS OF 1918.

AN ACT TO PERMIT TOWNS TO INCLUDE INCOME TAX RECEIPTS AS A BASIS FOR CERTAIN LOANS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirty-seven of Part I of chapter four hundred and ninety of the acts of nineteen hundred and nine is hereby amended by striking out the word "and", in the seventh line, and substituting a comma, and by inserting after the word "towns", in the ninth line, the words:— and of all abatements granted on account of the tax assessment of any year in excess of the overlay of that year, and not otherwise provided for, — so as to read as follows:— Section 37. The assessors shall annually assess taxes to an amount not less than the aggregate of all amounts appropriated, granted or lawfully expended by their respective cities or towns since the last preceding annual assessment and not provided for therein, of all amounts which are required by law to be raised by taxation by the said cities or towns during said year, of all amounts necessary to satisfy final judgments against the said cities or towns and of all abatements granted on account of the tax assessment of any year in excess of the overlay of that year, and not otherwise provided for; but such assessments shall not include liabilities for the payment of which cities or towns have lawfully voted to contract debts. The assessors may deduct the amount of all the estimated receipts of their respective cities or towns, except from loans or taxes, which are lawfully applicable to the payment of the expenditures of the year from the amount required to be assessed; but such deduction shall not exceed the amount of such receipts during the preceding year.

CONCLUSION.

The duties of the Municipal Division of the Bureau of Statistics were never more exacting and its services to the citizens and officers of our municipalities never more important nor, I think I am justified in saying, more cordially appreciated by them, than at the present time; and the possibilities for usefulness in the future in promoting sound financial administration and forwarding the cause of good government in the cities and towns of the Commonwealth are limited only by the support which the Legislature is willing to accord.

In conclusion, it is a pleasure for me to again express my deep sense of obligation to those in the department who have so efficiently assisted and co-operated in this work, particularly to Mr. Theodore N. Waddell, Chief of the Division and Statistician, Mr. Edward H. Fenton, Chief Examiner in Charge of Auditing and Installing Systems, and Miss Hannah M. Varney, in general charge of the clerical work.

CHARLES F. GETTEMY,

Director, Bureau of Statistics.

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, December 31, 1918.

PLAN OF THE REPORT.

The statistical presentations of this report, following the introductory matter, are arranged in three principal parts, devoted respectively to the finances of (I) the 36 cities; (II) the 78 towns having a population of 5,000 or over; and (III) the towns having a population of less than 5,000. In all the tabulations, unless otherwise indicated, the cities and towns are arranged in order of population for convenience of comparison.

PART I. — CITIES.

This part is subdivided as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Receipts from Revenue; (C) Payments for Maintenance and Interest; (D) Indebtedness; and (E) Cash Balances.

(A) Summary of Financial Transactions.

This division consists of a summary table (designated Table I) or general survey of all the financial transactions of the 36 cities of the Commonwealth (pp. 4-25). The several cities, with the exception of Boston, which has financial transactions of such magnitude as to warrant presentation independently of the other cities, are arranged and graded, for purposes of comparison, according to the population of the Massachusetts Census of 1915, the receipts being shown on the left-hand page and the payments on the right, typographical considerations making it necessary to adopt an arbitrary grouping of four municipalities to a page.

(B) Receipts from Revenue.

Table II (pp. 28, 29) shows receipts from General and Table III (pp. 30, 31) receipts from Commercial Revenue. The former consists of taxes, licenses and permits, fines and forfeits, grants and gifts, and all other general revenue; while the latter is composed of revenue from special assessments (whether for expenses or outlays), privileges, departmental earnings, public service enterprises, cemeteries, and interest.

Table IV (pp. 32-40) is an exhibit of classified Departmental Earnings (being the detail of Column D of Table III), from which may be seen the amount of revenue received by the several municipalities from their various departments. Unclassified receipts are excluded because of their diversity. This table is self-explanatory and is suggestive as disclosing the varying degree to which different cities have discovered opportunities for revenue from this source.

Table V (p. 41) is a tabulation of interest receipts classified so as to show the amount of interest derived from money on deposit, from deferred taxes and special assessments, from public trust funds (sub-classified according to particular funds, so far as is practicable), from investment funds, and from miscellaneous sources.

Table VI (p. 42) presents a summary of revenue receipts, giving within the scope of a single table in a form convenient for comparison the receipts from all sources of revenue of the 36 cities.

It is of interest to note that of the total revenue receipts of the 36 cities of the Commonwealth for the year covered by the report, 77.2 per cent is from general revenue sources and 22.8 per cent from commercial revenue sources. The revenue receipts of the city of Boston are 77.5 per cent from general and 22.5 per cent from commercial sources.

(C) Payments for Maintenance and Interest.

The tables in this division, VII to X, inclusive (pp. 45-67), exhibit gross payments, classified in detail, on account of the maintenance cost, or what are sometimes called the "current expenses" of the various departments or kinds of municipal services. Interest payments are similarly but separately shown, not only because it is desirable to exhibit this item of expense independently, but because interest is properly a capital rather than a departmental charge.

It would be most interesting and significant, too, if we could calculate the net cost of the several municipal services so as to show the actual burden of each upon the taxpayer, and it might be supposed that such a figure could be obtained simply by deducting the earnings of a department from the amount necessary to maintain it; but there is as yet on the part of accounting authorities no clear or general understanding as to what receipts should be treated as departmental earnings, thereby constituting a proper offset to expense, and what, on the other hand, being in the nature of an assessment upon the taxpayer rather than a charge upon the citizen, cannot be legitimately deducted from a gross cost figure in order to obtain net cost of maintenance.

In comparing certain departmental expenses, large differences will occasionally be noted for the same class of service, the reason for which is not sufficiently apparent to warrant our attempting to assign it without more or less exhaustive inquiry. Meanwhile the differences, even for a single year, which may be noted in these comparative tables for cities of approximately the same size should stimulate local discussion for the purpose of ascertaining whether a satisfactory explanation can be found.

From the interest table (p. 67) we note that the total interest burden of the 36 cities for the year covered by the report was $11,758,013.67, of which $6,550,882.94, or 55.7 per cent, was interest on the general debt; $595,598.26, or 5.1 per cent, was interest on revenue and other temporary loans; and the remaining 39.2 per cent of the total interest payments was for debt on account of trust funds used, public service enterprise and cemetery loans, metropolitan assessments for sewer, park, and water purposes, state assessments on account of grade crossing abolition, and miscellaneous debt not specified. It is of interest to note that the total assessment on the city of Boston for interest on metropolitan debts was $1,681,625.19, or 27.6 per cent of the total interest burden of the city (see also payments to the state sinking and loan funds on page 74). Over 55 per cent of Somerville's total interest burden is on account of metropolitan assessments.

(D) Indebtedness.

Table XI (p. 71) shows the outstanding indebtedness classified by the character of the obligation; Table XII (p. 72), the relation of indebtedness to valuation, the valuation figures as reported to the Tax Commissioner being used; Table XIII (p. 73), the debt transactions for 1916, classified according to the character of the obligation; Table XIV (p. 74) shows separately the payments to the state sinking and loan funds; and Table XV (p. 75) shows the method of meeting debt requirements from taxation.

A tabulation which gives figures for the funded or fixed debt and the net debt only of a municipality does not, however, tell the whole story of the debt burden. Revenue loans, it is true, are not included in reckoning the limit of indebtedness under the law; but though they are temporary transactions with uncollected taxes presumably as an offsetting asset, they constitute in fact a permanent burden, since they are as a class annually recurrent. Loans in anticipation of bond issues, although of a temporary character, are in reality fixed debt (having no assets as an offset) and in Table XII are included in the total of funded or fixed debt and reckoned in determining the net debt. Table XI (p. 71) has therefore been prepared for the purpose of showing the aggregate outstanding indebtedness, including not only the funded or fixed debt, but also temporary debt and warrants or orders unpaid.

The net funded or fixed debt is found by deducting from the total funded or fixed debt the amount which has been set aside in sinking funds to pay the debt when due. Funded or fixed debt does not include revenue loans or outstanding warrants or orders, because these debts are considered temporary and it is assumed that such obligations are offset by theoretically "quick" assets. Thus, revenue loans are offset by uncollected taxes, and warrants or orders by cash on hand.

The table of debt transactions (p. 73) is of interest as showing the amount of debt incurred during the fiscal year 1916 for the several purposes specified, and the amount of debt cancelled during the year, excepting payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings, metropolitan assessments for sewer, park, and water purposes, and payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. These payments represent the cancellation of a portion of the city's debt incurred by the State on its account, and for this reason are excluded.

Included in the term "General Loans" in the table of debt transactions are not only loans issued for general purposes, but likewise all loans whether specified as for school, fire, or police, etc., purposes, since these could not be shown separately by figures which would be comparable.

Payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings and metropolitan sewer, park, and water assessments are shown separately in Table XIV (p. 74). The aggregate amount thus paid for the 36 cities in 1916 was $665,648.71, of which Boston paid $408,063.69, or 61.3 per cent.

Table XV (p. 75) is of interest as showing the relative use by the 36 cities of Massachusetts of the two methods of meeting their debt obligations. The payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings and metropolitan assessments are included in this table in order to show the annual debt charges against revenue, but they are assessments and not properly charged as a serial or municipal sinking fund payment.

(E) Cash Balances.

Table XVI (p. 79) shows the amount of cash on hand held by the treasurer and departments at the beginning and close of the fiscal year 1916.

PART II. — TOWNS OVER 5,000 POPULATION.

The subdivisions of this part are as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Indebtedness; (C) Cash Balances.

The tables in Division A, Summary of Financial Transactions (pp. 84-127), are similar in form and detail to those given for the cities in Part I, the towns being arranged in groups of four according to graded population, with the exception of Brookline, the largest town, which is presented separately as its transactions are scarcely comparable with those of any other town. The tables in the division devoted to Indebtedness (II, III, IV, V, and VI, on pp. 130-137, inclusive) are similar to those given for the cities, and the comments made in the latter connection are likewise applicable to the towns. The statements of Cash Balances (pp. 140, 141) for the towns are also self-explanatory.

PART III. — TOWNS UNDER 5,000 POPULATION.

The subdivisions of this part are as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Indebtedness; (C) Cash Balances. They are presented on the same plan as the towns of over 5,000 population, which are shown in Part II.

TABLE XII. — Relation of Indebtedness to Valuation — 1916.

NOTE. The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1916, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1916, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in the table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table XI, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans, such as those found in Worcester, Salem, and Northampton (see foot-notes on Table XI), and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table XI, the result will give the funded or fixed debt in Table XII.

NOTE. The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, or payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. For this reason the total amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 4 to 25, under the section "Municipal Indebtedness."

Refunding bonds for the current year were bonds issued for general purposes, excepting $40,000 of water bonds in the city of Pittsfield.

NOTE. The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1916, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1916, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in the table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table II, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table II, the result will give the funded or fixed debt shown in Table III.

NOTE. The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, or payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. For this reason the total amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 81 to 127 under the section "Municipal Indebtedness."

Refunding bonds for the current year were bonds issued for general purposes excepting $3,000 of water bonds in the town of Abington and $15,000 of water bonds in the town of Whitman.

TABLE III. — Relation of Indebtedness to Valuation — 1916.

NOTE. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1916, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1916, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock, as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in the table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table II, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans, such as those found in the towns of Townsend, West Newbury, and Southampton, (see foot-notes on pages 273 and 275), and warrants or orders, is deducted from the total debt shown in Table II, the result will give the funded or fixed debt shown in Table III.

There are 50 towns which showed no funded or fixed debt.
